

Quality of Life in Peterborough Report 2006

February 8, 2007

Chambered Nautilus

I have one thousand faces reflected in one thousand mirrors, and one thousand rooms in which to hide
Down a spiral staircase, spinning out of control
I lay in the succulent baths of one thousand seas Taste the salt on my lips and listen, listen to a chorus of sea sounds echo from inside Here, here is the relationship between all living things.
